*"I had been trying for years to devise a system to deal with clutter in our second bedroom. Calling on Anne to help has made a world of difference, work side-by-side really was the key. Anne had some basic suggestions that changed everything. She helped me to focus on the room's purpose and then we agreed that if something didn't belong in that space, it had to go. I realized I would just drop stuff on the floor because I had no real place for it. Anne helped with the idea of a launching and landing area which really helps organize "stuff". Anne is empathetic, not judgmental, very energetic and really keeps you on task! I will definitely call on Anne again for other projects! While it seems hard to rationalize paying someone to get you organized, it is worth every penny!!" Meg Goldberg

*"Anne is everything you want a quality home improvement consultant to be. She is personable, professional, and talented. Anne arrived on time for our consult, and within a reasonably short time period was able to show me how my small, funny shaped walk-in closet could be efficient as well as attractive. She was also willing to listen and make alternate suggestions according to my budget. Friends who had seen the closet before were amazed. One person asked if I had moved a wall! I recommend her highly." Donna Needham
