

Small Business

You are you a business professional or sole proprietor who prefers order, and you desire to do your best work

- You want to manage your time better and achieve more
- You are energetic, entrepreneurial, and creative
- Your workload balance has tipped, your productivity has dropped, and your procrastination has increased

We Restore Your Workload Balance

SolutionsForYou Business Solutions experts will work with you to reach your productivity and organizational goals. By focusing on the root behaviors and habits that created your disorganization the clutter and disarray in your office will be eliminated. Leaving you with organized solutions and sustainable systems you will be able to maintain.

You will be in control of your schedule and more effective. You will find what you need when you need it. You will become focused on your goals and priorities. You may also experience the following improvements:

- Overjoyed Instead of Overwhelmed
- Clearing your Environment Reduces Distractions
- Making More Money
- Reduced Stress
- Minimizing Wasted Time
- Maximizing Focus and Productivity
- Increased Confidence
- Achieving your Goals

You've taken the first step. Now, let's get started on getting you organized, once and for all.

Are you ready?

Complete your organizing needs assessment online or call 503-246-0710

Get started now!

“Anne and her team of organizers were efficient, thorough, and provided an over-the-top end result. Their work as a diverse team taking on different aspects of restructuring the physical space and the flow of my office was amazing. I am already seeing an increase in productivity! An excellent investment that will help me lead my company to the next stage of growth. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!” Kathie Nelson

“I just completed the Self-Study Organizer Training through Anne Blumer. I would highly recommend taking any of her trainings for any person wanting to open any type of business. Her wealth of knowledge and unbelievable organization skills makes a daunting process of opening a business possible! Thanks Anne I am indebted to you!” Marilyn